

GME SCOUTS

GREATER MANCHESTER EAST COUNTY SCOUT COUNCIL

WINTER SKILLS SCOTLAND WEEKEND

DO YOU LOVE BEING IN THE HILLS IN THE SUMMER?
DO YOU WONDER WHAT CRAMPONS ARE ALL ABOUT?
DO YOU THINK 'ICE PICKS' ARE JUST FOR CLIMBERS?
WELL, HERE'S YOUR CHANCE TO UNLOCK SOME MYSTERY!

Greater Manchester East and North Scouts are running a winter skills workshop for you to come and see what the fuss is about!

No winter experience necessary, but a Terrain I permit is ideal, or good knowledge and experience of hill craft and navigation.

For those with some winter experience who'd like to brush up their skills or increase their knowledge, there will also be a slightly higher level workshop to consolidate your skills.

WHEN? 12th–14th February 2010 (plus prep night on 4th February)

WHERE? Adventurer's Escape, Aberfeldy, Scotland

HOW MUCH? £45 for accommodation and admin

HUNGRY? Self catering - kitchen available and pub next door!

TRAVEL? Lift shares will be organised beforehand

GEAR? Axe, crampons and helmets available for hire.
You need winter clothes and stiff boots.

For more info and a booking form, please contact
Keith Hampson, GME ACC Activities
gmescouts@keithhampson.co.uk